FAMILY SUPPLIES. AUCTION SALES. MANY ARE ASKING WHAT IS FUTURE DAYS. BURCHARD'S CANNED COFFEE. THOMAS DOWLING, Auctioneer. It is no new and wonderful compound of strange and hitherto unknown ingredients, like a patent medicine; but simply a carefully selected PURE COFFEE, which is roasted, ground, and then packed in hermetrically sealed tin cans, holding one pound each. The only wonderful thing about it is its superior strength and flavor in connection with the small price of 15 cents per pound. But that is only one illustration of our way of doing business. The Strategy of Love.—"Disconsolate lovers in all ages," says the Paris correspondent of the London Standard, "have tried all sorts of means to defeat the designs of their hard-hearted parents, but it has been reserved for a young seamstress of Anvers, near Pontoise, to eclipse all her predecessors in the strategy of love. Mile, Clemence Blossier, aged 16 years, became enamored of a neighboring swain; but her pareats objected to the choice, and locked up their daughter. The girl, however, escaped from her prison, and in order to attract her lover to her, set fire to the village. The swain came to assist in extinguishing the conflagration, which nearly destroyed the village, and then disappeared with his lady love. But Mile, Blossier was not allowed to enjoy the fruits of her stratagem. She was arrested, and has now been condemned to ten years' hard labor for arson."

Queen Outcome of Woman's Suffrage.—A certain gentleman, living in one of the outlying wards of this city, and in apparent good circumstances, has been for some years past in the habit of paying simply a poll-tax. This year he was somewhat astonished at receiving a taxbill to the amount of $1,100. Upon visiting the assessor to know what it meant, they, to his astonishment, commenced interrogating him in relation to the ownership of certain mortgages, stocks &c., and, when pushed to the wall, he confessed that they belonged to him, and that the tax-bill was all right. In reply to his persistent inquiries as to who had furnished them with the information, they finally informed him that his wife had been registered as a voter, and, when questioned as to her qualifia voter, and, when questioned as to her qualifi-cations, had enumerated the various taxable properties of her liege lord—[Boston Traveller.

OFFICIAL WHIPPINGS are continued regularly at Newcastle, Del., and are regarded as a matter of course by the residents, though strangers are semetimes shocked by the sight. On the are semetimes shocked by the sight. On the last whipping day five convicted thieves were punished. The first was a German, who was not severely lashed, and he walked away smiling. The second was a miserable tramp, who bore the ordeal without finching. Two negroes, who came next, writhed and muttered under the pain of severe blows. The fifth was a boy of 15. He was so frightened that it was necessary to force him to the post, and at the first stroke he desperately freed himself by pulling his hands out of the staples. A handkerchief was used to fasten him, but he got loose again before the prescribed twenty blows were completed, and pathetically begged the sheriff not to strike so hard.

OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES' 70TH BIRTHDAY WAS commemorated in Boston Wednesday by a breakfast tendered by the publishers of the Atlantic Monthly at the Brunswick hotel. After the breakfast an opening speech was made, which was feelingly responded to by Dr. Holmes, when other speeches followed. Among the guests were Ralph Waldo Emerson, H. W. Longfellow and many other distinguished essayists and poets. President Hayes sent a letter of regret at not being able to attend. During the afternoon there was more speaking. Holmes read his poem entitled "The Iron Gate." "Our Autocrat," by Whittier, was then read.

A BELGIAN ARCHBISHOP'S DEFINITION OF THE INFALLIBILITY DOGMA.—The archioishop of Mechlin, Belgium, in a recent pastoral letter, asserts that the Port is not infallible, except when he judges questions which rest on the testimony of God—that is, revealed truth or revealed law. This is intended to rebut the charge that the Belgian bishops are guilty of schism or disobedience in disregarding the Pope's admonitions respecting the educational agitation. The bishop of Tournay, the most violent opponent of the liberal cabinet, has been superceded by an administrator appointed by the Pope. The bishop's mind is believed to be unsound.
